School play tackles controversial topic

AFTER months of rehearsals, Armadale Senior High School students are ready to stage school production Babyfather, written by Joanna Kendrick and directed by Nicole George.

The production, based on a book of the same name, follows Dominic's journey after he discovers that his girlfriend, Emma, is pregnant.

The story follows the male perspective, as Dominic struggles with the implications of fathering a child while still in high school.

The play tackles issues such as gender roles, masculinity and the fragility of relationships, all while dealing with teenage pregnancy.

The performance is being held in the Performing Arts Centre at Armadale Senior High School on May 14 at 8pm. Tickets are $8 for adults and $5 concession. Booked on 9497 6426.